THE IMPRINT

About Mbonelele Publishing

Mbonelele Publishing was founded by Takalani and Margaret Musekwa out of a shared conviction: that the most important ideas are the ones nobody is willing to say out loud. The imprint exists to release books that stand upright without the crutches of decorative aesthetics or contemporary compliance.

Operating from South Africa and serving readers across the African continent and internationally, Mbonelele sits at the intersection of professional leadership, faith-based community, and foundational family values.

AUTHOR & SPEAKER

Takalani G. Musekwa

Executive Strategy · HR Leadership · Pastoral Ministry

Takalani G. Musekwa brings over two decades of corporate leadership to everything he does. He moves between boardrooms and pulpits with the same conviction: that people thrive when their work, relationships, and spirit are aligned — and that most institutions actively prevent this.

As a Master Reward Specialist and former Acting CHRO at SARS, Takalani has designed executive incentive frameworks for major South African corporations, delivered keynotes to governance boards and annual HR conferences, and advised organisations navigating complex people-strategy challenges.

His 2026 book, Marriage Is Not Obsolete, applies the same structural rigour he brings to organisational design to the institution of marriage — producing a faith-based guide that is as analytically sound as it is spiritually grounded.

CREDENTIALS

AUTHOR & SPEAKER

Margaret Musekwa

Literary Voice · Community Leadership · Ministry Life

Margaret Musekwa is a profound realist whose prose directly confronts what sits hidden in plain sight. With nearly three decades of active ministry leadership and community service across South Africa, she has counselled, mentored, and walked alongside hundreds of women navigating the weight of public institutional life.

As Founder of Mbonelele Publishing Pty Ltd, Margaret built the imprint as a vehicle for truth-telling — releasing books and resources that bypass decorative paradigms to establish authentic pathways for real people in real situations.

Her 2026 book, Nobody Told Me This, is the honest field guide every pastor's wife in Africa needs — before she needs it. Raw, real, and rooted in 27 years of ministry life. Her prayer journal, The Silent Burden, has become a sanctuary resource for ministry spouses across the continent.
